

How can we celebrate and remember?

History key facts:

- Queen Victoria reigned from 1837- 1901
- World War I was from 1914-1918, followed by World War 2 (1939-1945).
- We wear poppies to remember those who fought and died in the war.
- King George VI was the monarch when WW2 started.
- Winston Churchill was prime minister throughout World War 2 and later worked with Queen Elizabeth II.
- Queen Elizabeth II reigned from 1952- 2022. She is the longest reigning monarch.

RE key knowledge:

- We will be exploring different religions (Sikhism, Islam, Christianity and Judaism) and their celebrations.
- We will be exploring what makes something sacred.

Key questions:

- Why was the Victorian Period significant?
- Why was Queen Elizabeth II a significant individual?
- How and why do we celebrate special and sacred times?
- How do we show respect for others?
- How do we show respect for belongings?

Queen Elizabeth
II

Queen Victoria

King
Charles III

Winston
Churchill

Vocabulary

Celebrate	To acknowledge (a significant or happy day or event) with a gathering of friends or family or to take part in an enjoyable activity.
Religion	A set of beliefs about how the universe was made and what its purpose is. Religion usually involves worship of a god or gods, and the belief in certain ideas about right and wrong behaviour.
Faith	A strong belief in the teachings of a religion.
Remembrance	If you do something in remembrance of a person, you do it as a way of showing that you want to remember them and respect them. An example of this is in Britain, Remembrance Day or Remembrance Sunday is the Sunday nearest to the 11 th November, when people honour the memory of those who died in the two world wars.
Monarch	A monarch is a head of state who rules over a country or a group of countries.
Reign	Reign refers to the period a monarch rules for. For example, Queen Elizabeth II reigned for 70 years.

